PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TIPNG and Transparency and Integrity Fiji Deepen Regional Cooperation Through Chapter Exchange

Port Moresby, 19 November, 2026 - Transparency International PNG (TIPNG) is hosting host two (2) colleagues from Transparency and Integrity Fiji (TIF) as part of the Transparency International's Chapter Exchange Program.

The Chapter Exchange provides an opportunity for both chapters to share experiences, exchange ideas and align regional efforts and cooperation in the global fight against corruption. Throughout the exchange, Mr Ratish Pratap – TIF Finance Officer and Mr Sikeli Naketeca - TIF Administration and Communication Officer, will explore TIPNG's operational practices, share institutional knowledge, and examine practical approaches to strengthening accountability, transparency, and good governance in their countries

TIPNG Chief Executive Officer, Ms Arianne Kassman, said the exchange reflects the value of cooperation among Transparency International Chapters in addressing common governance and corruption challenges across the Pacific.

"Pacific countries face many of the same governance and accountability challenges. By coming together as a global movement, we can leverage our collective strength, share innovative practices, and amplify our impact," said Ms. Kassman. "This exchange allows us to learn from one another, strengthen our institutional capacity, and build lasting professional networks that directly support our shared mission to promote integrity."

The Chapter Exchange highlights the core values of the Transparency International movement – fostering cross-boarder collaboration and regional solidarity to ensure that transparency and integrity prevail across the Pacific region.
